

Green Deal Assessor/Domestic Energy Assessor

- Colchester, Essex
- £32,000 OTE
- Job type: Permanent, full-time

Domestic Energy / Green Deal Assessor with the option to self generate (Self Employed).

Our client is a national marketing agency working to improve the UK's domestic energy consumption. They have already delivered millions of energy efficiency measures into Britain's homes and are exceptionally well placed to do even more. To help us deliver against our clients obligations we are looking to recruit accredited DEA/GDAs to drive business in dedicated areas. Working in partnership with the Sales, Operations and Marketing teams, successful individuals will be responsible to complete technical surveys in customers homes to produce energy efficient works ready orders under ECO.

The ideal candidate will be a self-starter with a good understanding of the renewable energy market, its schemes and product offerings. All applicants will be required to undergo a CRB check and must have a valid driving license and use of own vehicle.

Knowledge / Skills / Qualifications

GDA / DEA Accredited Sales experience Good administration skills Excellent customer service skills Identify and sell additional products a customer may need Manage and achieve individual and team KPIs

Continually look for ways to improve our offering

Constantly update and grow an understanding of the renewable energy market, its schemes, products and offerings

Realistic OTE for this role will be circa 40k - £60K per annum, high achievers will earn £60K+ Salary: £60K+